Valdera appoints Principal Geologist

Valdera has appointed Mr. Matthew Wood as Principal Geologist to manage the Company's exploration activities.

Mr. Wood has extensive experience in base and precious metals projects, particularly in Western Australia. He has a strong background in all aspects of resource project development from exploration and discovery through to mining. He was a member of the exploration teams responsible for discovery of the Fortitude and Challenger gold deposits.

Mr Wood will be working with Valdera's Technical Executive, Dr Donal Windrim, ensuring dedicated, first class management of the Company's projects.

Yours faithfully

Craig Burton
Executive Director
